Department Highlights

Concealed Weapons Permits

The process is underway to move responsibility for the issuance of concealed weapons permits in Madison to the Maine State Police. Executive Secretary Slate has provided a list of current permit holders and a list of "in process" applications that will be transferred when the agreement has been signed by the Madison Selectmen.

Current Opening

The Deputy position vacated by Brett Lowell was posted and applications have been received. Potential candidates are currently being reviewed.

Follow-up

The deputy assigned to follow-up covered open vacation shifts and is currently covering the shift that is open. As a result the follow-up deputy was dedicated to this function for six days during the month of August.

Eric Bronson traveled to Fall River, MA on Friday, August 21st to interview individuals involved in the Yogi Bear Campground drowning case.

Madison Anson Days Events

The Somerset County Sheriff's Office Madison Division provided coverage for several of the Madison Anson Days events, including the bike race and parade.

Other

Executive Secretary Slate is out on medical leave beginning August 20th and is expected to return September 21st.
