

SPECIAL RECALL ELECTION – MARCH 7, 2023

The Town of Madison has received a petition to recall Glen Mantor from his elected position on the Select Board. The petition with the required number of signatures from registered voters in Madison was presented to the Select Board Monday night January 9, 2023. At that meeting the board set a date for the special recall election of Tuesday March 7, 2023 from 8am to 8pm at the Election Room at the Old Point School (108 Old Point Avenue).

The process for recalling an elected official is outlined in Chapter 120 of the Madison Code of Ordinances <https://ecode360.com/9857012>

The Madison Select Board will hold a public hearing on the recall Monday night February 13, 2023 at 6:30pm at the Old Point School Meeting Room 104.

Per the Town Ordinance, nomination papers are currently available at the Town Office for candidates seeking to place their name on the ballot for election if the recall passes. Those nomination papers need to be returned to the Town Office with the required signatures by 4pm Monday January 30, 2023.

Ballots will be available for absentee voting as of Monday February 6, 2023.

Please contact the Town Office at 696-3971 with questions.
